

Pete's PET POSSE

Scholarship Application

The Pete's Pet Posse Training Scholarship provides financial assistance for the cost of therapy dog training in the OSU Pete's Pet Posse Program. Current value of the scholarship is $350. Additional costs associated with the program are shown in the Fee Schedule in the program Application, and are the responsibility of the owner/handler.

Scholarship applications are reviewed and awarded by the Pete's Pet Posse Governing Board. There is one scholarship available per training class. Awards are based primarily on the demonstrated financial need of the individual applying, although other factors may be taken into consideration. Applicants must be in good standing with the University, and household income must be less than $50,000 annually to be considered.

Please complete this Scholarship Application and return it with a completed Pete's Pet Posse program application by email to pettherapy@okstate.edu no later than Friday, September 29, 2023, at 5pm. You may also send via campus mail to the Ann Hargis OSU Center for Pet Therapy, 224 Student Union.

Name of scholarship winner may be published and/or may appear in published media including, but not limited to, press releases, web page, and social media outlets. By applying, you acknowledge you are granting Pete's Pet Posse permission to share your name and likeness without further compensation.
