Pay Increases:

- Eligibility for programs listed above.
- Increase will be given within 30 days of program completion verification through OSU Talent Development.
- Multiple completions of the same certificate program will not result in additional one-time payments.
- All program requirements must be fulfilled before a payment can be granted.
- Payments are subject to appropriate taxes, withholdings and FLSA guidelines.
- If a department is unable to provide payment due to severe budgetary constraints, review and approval of the exception by the appropriate Vice President is required.
- Employees who are currently on corrective action in accordance with OSU Policy 3-07203 (Corrective Action and Dismissal for Staff) are generally ineligible to receive this incentive; however, they can become eligible by successfully completing the corrective action plan established for them. Please contact Human Resources Consulting Services if you have questions regarding corrective action and staff eligibility.
