

RACE/ETHNIC CATEGORIES

OSU is subject to certain governmental recordkeeping and reporting requirements for the administration of civil rights laws and regulations. In order to comply with these laws, OSU invites employees to voluntarily self-identify their race or ethnicity. Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information obtained will be kept confidential and may only be used in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws, executive orders, and regulations, including those that require the information to be summarized and reported to the federal government for civil rights enforcement. When reported, data will not identify any specific individual.

Your race/ethnic category is how you have identified yourself on the census. Your race/ethnicity is not something that changes from year to year. If you change this category Affirmative Action reserves the right to call and ask for verification.
